Dear Parents and Carers,

I am writing to provide clarity regarding a letter sent to a select few pupils yesterday, which has unfortunately since been shared on social media.

A minor administrative error on the paper meant that some pupils mistakenly believed they only had to answer one of the two questions in the exam. This was particularly unfortunate given that all pupils had received expert guidance from their teachers in the weeks leading up to these PPEs on what was required in the examination, particularly in answering both of the required questions.

Please be assured that over 90% of our pupils were completely unaffected by this issue. We have already directly contacted the small number of families who were affected. To ensure total fairness, these pupils will be given the opportunity to resist a different question on the same topic today in our air-conditioned Resource Centre. No pupil will be disadvantaged by this situation in any way.

Thank you for your ongoing support.

Yours Faithfully,

Mr P Archer
